

CPD Quiz for Dietitian Connection Webinar

“Engaging the patient: Improving patient meal experience through patient-directed bedside meal ordering”
with Vicki Barrington & Jacqueline Black

1. To enable Peter Mac to implement their bedside meal ordering system, they needed:

- a. To build a new kitchen
- b. To move to a new facility
- c. To install patient bedside terminals/computers
- d. To create a new patient menu

2. Patients can use the bedside meal ordering system to:

- a. Enter their menu choices anytime 24/7
- b. Access the nutritional analysis of menu items
- c. View the ingredients of the menu items
- d. All of the above

3. On the bedside meal ordering system at Peter Mac, patients can enter their:

- a. Selections for all meals (including main meals and mid-meals/snacks)
- b. Selections for just main meals
- c. Food preferences
- d. All of the above

4. Interactive meal ordering technology can be used to:

- a. Enhance patient engagement and satisfaction
- b. Increase dietary intake
- c. Enable patients, families and carers to actively participate in nutrition care
- d. All of the above

5. If patients can't or don't want to enter their meals on the bedside terminals will:

- a. Receive a standard/default meal
- b. Need to call the kitchen
- c. Be visited by a Nutrition Assistant
- d. Need to ask a Nurse

6. Mobile Intake is a mobile electronic solution which is used to record;

- a. Patient meal selections
- b. How much of each food item was consumed
- c. Patient food preferences
- d. Track nutritional supplements

7. The use of an electronic solution can support allergy management by:

- a. Enabling foods to be identified/coded with a specific allergen/s
- b. Ensuring no menu items containing a specific allergen are offered as menu choices to patients with the allergy
- c. Ensuring no menu items containing a specific allergen are served/delivered to patients with the allergy
- d. All of the above

ANSWERS

1. To enable Peter Mac to implement their bedside meal ordering system, they needed:

C To install patient bedside terminals/computers

2. Patients can use the bedside meal ordering system to:

D All of the above

3. On the bedside meal ordering system at Peter Mac, patients can enter their:

A Selections for all meals (including main meals and mid-meals/snacks)

4. Interactive meal ordering technology can be used to:

D All of the above

5. If patients can't or don't want to enter their meals on the bedside terminals will:

C Be visited by a Nutrition Assistant

6. Mobile Intake is a mobile electronic solution which is used to record;

B How much of each food item was consumed

7. The use of an electronic solution can support allergy management by:

D All of the above